

Strengthening Access to Quality Higher Education

The Foundation collaborates with institutions across the Arab region to help youth become more skilled and competitive in a rapidly changing job market. This pillar's programs aim to increase access to high-quality higher education for the region's youth by collaborating with key stakeholders such as higher education institutions and education providers to provide accredited, industry-recognized online certifications and expand work-integrated learning opportunities.